RATES.

Southern Baptist Convention, Hot Springs, Ark., May 11-15, 1900.

Dear Sir:

We wish to announce that for the above meeting the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway Company will sell tickets at one fare for the round trip. If you have not made arrangements for your ticket, we would very much like to have you join our party, leaving Louisville on May 7th and 8th, going via St. Louis and the St. Paul, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway.

If agreeable, will you kindly write me by return mail and state just when you expect to leave and if we can count on you to join our party here. Shall be glad to give you any information you may want as to time of trains etc.

Trusting you will give this your prompt attention, I am,

Respectfully yours,
B. L. BYRNE, T. P. A.
J. M. IRWIN, G. P. A.

GIFTS FOR FIVE

MILLION LADIES.

The Most Remarkable Offer Ever Made By a Reliable Concern.

EDITOR ADVOCATE:

Please announce that for a limited time we will give, absolutely free, an elegant sterling silver-plated sugar shell—choice of any of our 40c. patterns—to every married lady in the United States who will write us a letter stating that it is her first request for one of our sugar shell gifts. We will promptly send illustrations from which selection may be made. There is nothing to pay. The gift is absolute.

Our object in making this sensational offer, is to get a sample of Quaker Valley Silverware into every home in the land. We believe it to be the most effective advertising that we can do. We will not send these sugar shells to lists of names. This is too expensive a gift to send to persons who don't ask for it themselves. Therefore, each lady will please send her own name only. But one to a family name only. Write to-day, giving full address.

As Goes America, so Goes the World, Religiously.

In Japan, the people are anxious to progress; they admire America very much; they modeled their new constitution after that of the United States as much as was consistent with a monarchy; they are adopting American manners, wearing American clothes, studying our language—anything that is American is accepted with favor; and it is no small help to the missionaries that the Japanese know that the religion they teach is the religion of America. God has given no a place of leadership to the nations that are just coming out of paganism into a new civilization. The American Constitution has been copied by fourteen governments that have adopted new constitutions within the century—a result of our great moral influence in the world, and a result that could never have been secured by fleets and armies. No nation has a stronger influence today than the United States, and it is the duty of the Christian people to see that the influence is for good.—Benjamin L. Smith.

MURDER WILL OUT.

Ten Indicted For The Crime—There are Others.

The Franklin county grand jury on the 17th returned ten indictments as the result of its investigation of the murder of William Goebel. There may be other indictments. Five men are indicted for the murder and five are indicted as accessories before the fact. Those indicted are:

FOR MURDER.

Henry E. Yontsey, of Newport (under arrest).
James Howard, of Clay county (warrant issued).
Berry Howard, of Harlan county (warrant issued).
Harlan Whitaker, of Butler county (under arrest).
"Tallow Dick" Combs, of Lee county (under arrest).

AS ACCESSORIES.

Charles Finley, of Whitley county (fugitive from justice in Indiana).
Caleb Powers, of Knox county (under arrest).
John L. Powers, of Knox county, (in hiding in mountains).
W. H. Culton, of Jackson county (under arrest).
F. Wharton Golden, of Knox county (warrant issued yesterday).
In the indictments against Finley and others, charged as accessories, the grand jury names W. S. Taylor as one of those with whom they conspired. John Davis and Green Golden are named in the same way. The Finley indictment—the others being similar—charges that Finley "unlawfully, willfully, feloniously and of his malice aforethought, and with intent to bring about the death and procure the murder of William Goebel, did conspire with Caleb Powers, F. W. Golden, Green Golden, John L. Powers, John Davis, W. H. Culton, W. S. Taylor, Henry Yontsey, James Howard, Berry Howard, Harlan Whitaker, Richard Combs and others to this grand jury unknown, and did counsel, advise, encourage, aid and procure Henry Yontsey, James Howard, Berry Howard, Harlan Whitaker, Richard Combs and other persons to this grand jury unknown, unlawfully, willfully, feloniously and of their malice aforethought, to kill and murder William Goebel.

W. H. Shipman, Beardlev, Minn., under oath, says he suffered from dyspepsia for twenty-five years. Doctor and dieting gave but little relief. Finally he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and now eats what he likes and as much as he wants, and he feels like a new man. It digests what you eat.

ORDINANCE.

An ordinance consolidating the offices of Treasurer and Collector of the city of Mt. Sterling, Ky.
Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Council of the city of Mt. Sterling, Ky., that the Treasurer of said city shall perform the duties of the office of Collector of said city.

This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage and publication as required by law and all laws or parts of same in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
Geo. W. BAIRD, Mayor
Thos. D. JONES, Clerk.
April 3, 1900.
J. I. CARSON, Prothonotary, Washington, Pa., says, "I have found Kodol Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in case of stomach trouble, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you eat and cannot fail to cure.

Monopoly is the worst of evils, because it is the parent of all other evils.

If the people do not get the first question in their heads, they will get it in their necks.

God does not impel one man to govern another, and inspire the other to die for independence.

So long as the farmer lets the monopolists make the laws, they will not meet at summer wars.

If the people wish to extinguish trusts, they must take the extinguisher out of the hands of the monopolists.

The Hackney In Harness.

To the Breeder's Gazette.—Many people claim that breeding horses is nothing but a lottery, and one never knows what a union of two fine individuals will bring forth. We wait in expectancy for the "hit," hoping that it may be all that is desired. If it fails to come up to the standard we expect, we to a large extent, must discountage and we simply return the mare and groom hoping for better results. This is the theory many breeders work on, and some breeders in other parts of the country are not so lucky. It is possible. If a man set out to breed carriage horses he should first of all get a typical carriage-horse stallion. He should choose his mares by comparing them with his stallion, getting them as near the carriage-horse type as possible. He may then expect favorable results.

Have we any accepted type of carriage horse? And what is the type? The accepted type of carriage-horse is no other than the Hackney type. The Hackney is the carriage-horse par excellence. Compare them by the hundred with any other breed, and the percentage in favor of the Hackney is simply overwhelming. The dealers in New York own to this; when describing a trotting-bred carriage-horse they will impress on you that he is a "Hackney-made one." In spite of his trotting lineage, and what should not they give the Hackney credit, seeing that it was the Hackney that educated them as to what constituted the ideal carriage-horse in action, weight and constitution? There are good and bad in all breeds, but good Hackneys are everywhere, and are everywhere. The Hackney has no equal in the world. It is the only breed that has no equal in the world. It is the only breed that has no equal in the world.

What is the Hackney made of? The Hackney is made of the best of all breeds. It is the only breed that has no equal in the world. It is the only breed that has no equal in the world. It is the only breed that has no equal in the world.

What of the Hackney mare? We have seen Dagmar and Her Majesty in harness, Spoons, White Socks, Kitty Glen, Miss Glen, Maudie Kendall and Queen of Action, Elegance, Portia and Jessica, Eccles Wonder, and those two great young mares, The Squaw and Princess Olga, by Euthrope Performer. The odds were always against them, yet they won, as did the geldings of this breed—Leader, the Scotchman, Blucher, Blazeway, Tomnoddy, Hiawaga, Storm King, His Grace and many others, including the great stallion, Starlight that danced away from everything last year under fifteen hands, being beaten only by that phenomenal horse Lord Brilliant.

At the National horse show held in New York last November, the Hackney horse demonstrated its superiority beyond question or doubt. Fifty per cent of the Hackneys shown in harness won prizes, whereas only five per cent of trotting-bred horses shown got inside the ribbons. Could anything be more plain?

On The Road.

On Saturday Mr. Bruce Duty secured a position as traveling salesman for J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co., Louisville, Ky. one of the largest wholesale dry goods houses of the south. His territory embraces Montgomery, Bath, Fleming, Rowan, Carter, Elliott, Morgan, Wolfe and other counties. He has for fully fifteen years been in the dry goods trade in this city. During the past seven years he has been the buyer for the well known firm of Samuels & King of this city. He is a competent man. We wish him success. He left for Louisville on yesterday to assume his duties.

MCCLURE.

Mr. Joel McClure, aged 87 years, died at his home near Spencer Saturday evening at 7 o'clock after a short illness of pneumonia. He was one of the oldest and best citizens of Montgomery county. No one spoke of him except to praise. He leaves a wife and two children, Edward and Mrs. Frank Carpenter, both of this county. He had been a member of the Spencer Christian Church for sixty-seven years, having become a member under the pastorate of H. J. Smith. The funeral services were held at Spencer Church Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial in Maplelawn cemetery.

LEWIS.

On Tuesday morning April 17, Herbert Lewis died at the home of his brother, George, in this county, after eight days sickness with pneumonia. He was 27 years old. He came from Madison county and accepted a clerkship in this city with Oldham Bros. & Co. for about two years until February, when he accepted a like position with the New York Cash Store. The burial was at College Hill in Madison county on Wednesday.

Mr. Lewis was a fine young man, an upright gentleman and a consistent christian, having been a member of the Methodist Church for years. No higher eulogy than this: Honest, faithful and a christian. Peace to his ashes.

CHILES.

Mrs. Marc Chiles jr., died at their home in Newport, on Wednesday, April 18, 1900, after a sickness of six weeks.

She was the youngest daughter of Mrs. Fannie Reese of this city, and was about 35 years old.

Mrs. Sallie Bratton died at her home in Winchester on Tuesday morning April 17, 1900, aged about 75 years. For two and one half years she had been paralyzed and had been a great sufferer, especially for the last few months.

Her maiden name was Evans. She was a widow and leaves six children: Robt. L. Mrs. H. C. Hart, Mrs. Robert S. Seeboe and Miss Lena, of Clark county, Mrs. W. A. Sutton and Mrs. R. M. Smith of this city. She was a member of the Christian Church and was a most excellent woman. The funeral service was held at the Christian Church in Winchester on Wednesday, conducted by Rev. W. T. Donaldson, of Newport, her former pastor at North Middletown, assisted by Revs. Walker and Froh.

Free from the pains of this earth's life, she has entered into that rest that is the inheritance of the faithful.

endorsed as a preacher and man of unusual powers. Those who hear him must go away in order to secure a comfortable seat. Twenty additions.

The Sunday School at Union School house will begin again next Sunday afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this Sunday School.

No preaching at the Southern Presbyterian Church next Sunday, as Rev. Henry Miller is out of town. There will be no Bible class to-night, nor Tuesday week.

Shower and sunshine make the fruit, lights and shadows, successes and failures make the rugged, sturdy character of mature life.

Recently in Tremont Temple, the Rev. Dr. Lorimer preached from a text suggested by the Topeka Independent. He said that he did not profess to know how Jesus would people by his powers and earnestness, his style being argumentative and conclusions unavoidable. Meetings during the week at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at 7:30 in the evening. Everybody invited, especially the unconverted whether they be identified with some church or not. Mr. Nowlin's aim is to make the gospel plan of Salvation plain and thus let it rest with the individual.

There were large congregations again at the first Presbyterian Church on last Sabbath. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Geo. A. Joplin preached a sermon on "Why I am a Presbyterian" in which he gave a number of reasons why those who were members of their church believed as they did. At the same time it was a sermon filled with brotherly love and contained nothing that would offend the members of other denominations. At the close of the sermon Mr. D. R. Bishop and Dr. Howard VanAntwerp were solemnly set aside and ordained

BLUES

Ever have them? Then we can't tell you anything about them. You know how dark everything looks and how you are about ready to give up. Somehow, you can't throw off the terrible depression. Are things really so blue? Isn't it your nerves, after all? That's where the trouble is. Your nerves are being poisoned from the impurities in your blood.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

purifies the blood and gives power and stability to the nerves. It makes health and strength, activity and cheerfulness. This is what "Ayer's" will do for you. It's the oldest Sarsaparilla in the land, the kind that was old before other Sarsaparillas were known. This also accounts for the saying, "One bottle of Ayer's is worth three bottles of the ordinary kind."

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Mrs. M. J. Long, of Le Loup, Franklin Co., Kans., writes: "World cannot express how grateful I am for your kind advice and good medicines. I have been in poor health more or less all my life. In the past blue veins grew worse, and two years ago I was nearly cured by your medicine. I consulted a specialist, and he said I had leucorrhea and that an operation would have to be performed. This did not seem necessary to me, so I went by, and at last I wrote to Dr. Pierce asking advice. I soon got a helpful answer advising me to try his medicines, the 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and also his 'Pleasant Pellets.' I began taking 'Favorite Prescription' and the other medicines at once. In one month I gained 8 pounds. After taking two bottles of each of the medicines, I began to look like a woman and not like a skeleton, and that weary tired feeling all left me."

Will of R. M. Barnes.

The chief provisions of the will of R. M. Barnes probated on Wednesday, are as follows:

To his wife he gives one-third of his real estate for and during her natural life; also specific articles exempt by law to her, also one-third of all personal property to be absolutely hers.

He has advanced to his son Henry, about $3,600 which is in full of his (Henry's) share in his estate and is to make no further advances nor is Henry to pay back any part of same in case the estate is not sufficient to make the other four children equal.

To his daughter Mrs. A. H. Judy he gives one-fourth in trust (less $500 advanced). At her death her share goes equally to her children.

The remainder goes equally to his sons T. K., J. W. and James, the share of the latter in trust. Upon the death of James his part goes to his heirs if he has any, otherwise to his brothers and sister. The will was written June 10, 1899, attested by Mrs. Mary W. Lloyd and A. B. White.

Broken Legs Did Not Prevent Marriage.

Recently at Paducah, Wynn Tully son of the County Judge, lay in a runaway and had both legs broken. On April 10th, while lying in bed unable to stand, he was married to Miss Floss Owens.

Shoot Him At Once.

A scientist said that if the earth was flattened the sea would be two miles deep all over the world. After due meditation a Kansas editor gave out the following: "All sea men are caught rattling on the earth, shoot him in the sea, and don't let him stand particular what spot. These are some of us Kansas that can't swim."

A BAD INVESTMENT.

Max Looking for Position First Bribed the Proprietor.

"Mornin' Guv'nor-in?" inquired a confident looking stranger of a weak young man who stood weighing sugar in a grocer's shop.

"Yes, sir."

"Um. You're advertising for a manager, I believe?"

"Yes, we are."

"Present manager about anywhere?"

"Well, I'm manager at present, sir."

"Ah! That's good. Now, what sort of chap may the 'gub'nor' be? Old?"

"About my own age."

"Had any trouble with him at all?"

"Well, I can't say I have."

"Close-fisted screw, ain't he?"

"Some people might call him so."

"Ah, well! If I get on here and be tried any of his nonsense on me, he'll get his head in the sugar-bin. Just give him my name, will you?"

"Well, if you are applying for the situation, I'm taking on the new man."

"By Jove! You are? Now, I should like to get this shop. Think you could come to an immediate decision if I made it worth your while?"

"Shouldn't wonder."

"Ah! Now I s'pose we may consider it settled, eh?" as he slipped a half-sovereign into the meek young man's hand.

"Yes," said that individual, as he quietly pocketed the coin. "Somehow I don't think you'd suit."

"Thunder! Not suit; why, how's that?"

"Well, you see, I happen to be the 'gub'nor' myself!"—London Tri-Bite.
